How Two American Officers Fell Into the Hands of the Filipinos.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

MANILA, May 31, 6:20 P. M .- Details regarding the capture by Filipinos of on officers of the United States hospital ship Relief, yesterday, have just been obtained.

The Relief lies in the harbor in front of this city. Third Officer Fred Heppy and Assistant Engineer Charles' Blanford rigged a sail on one of the ship's boats and went sailing along the shore on the south, opposite the insurgent lines. The beat became became became near the shore, and some native cances, with Filipinos of board, put out and captured the two men, who were unarmed, and also took possession of the boat.

ATTEMPT AT RESCUE FAILS. The United States turret ship Monadnock quickly sent a boat with a landing party ashore under cover of her guns, and shelled the shore briskly. The natives, however, rushed the prisoners into the woods before the Monadnock's Persons on board several other ships saw the affair through glasses, but were unable to prevent the capture of Messrs. Heppy and Blanford.

REBELS WREAK VENGEANCE ON FRIENDLY NATIVES Friendly natives arriving from the country around San Isidro and San Miguel report that a reign of terror has prevailed sinco the American troops were withdrawn from these parts of the islands. MURDER, ARSON AND PLUNDER. The friendlies declare that unoffending people are being murdered daily, and that their houses are being burned and their property confiscated. Plenty of sympathizers with the insurrection remained during the American's stay, and they have been reporting these instances of friendliness towards our troops.

THEIR LAST CONDITION WORSE THAN THE PIRST. The refugees add that the inhabitants were badly oppressed by the nativo soldiers before the Americans arrived, but their condition is worse now. Doubtless there is much truth in the reports, though such stories from Filipinos' source are always magnified.

Several months ago the salary of the position was reduced from $2,500 per annum to $2,250. The Board will probably raise the amount to $2,400. It is not expected that any changes will take place in the corps of teachers, except in the High School, where it is understood that Karl Heinrichs, instructor of German, will be retired. His classes will be looked after by Miss Edmunds. will be looked after by ansa raminas. The number of daily High School recitations will be increased from four to five. For some time past the Directors have been considering the advisability of changing the hours of study in the of changing the hours of study in the High School, so that the work would reminence at 8 a. m. and close at 1 p. m., with but lifteen minutes intermission. At present the recitations are from 9 in the morphing until noon, and from 1 to 4 p. m. The new proposition may be adopted as an experiment.

₹®� 0®� 0®�0 ®�0® �©0�� 0�⁴ऄ HAYWARDS, May 31.—Golden State Council Y. M. I., has been revived. Monday evening a meeting was held in Luce's Hall to perfect the organization. Tive candidates were initiated and the affair closed with a banquet.

AN ALUMNI BANQUET.
The High School Alumni Association will give a banquet tomorrow night at the Club House in honor of Walter Helms. NEWS NOTES.

EMPERYVILLE, May 31.—The local chool closes June 9th. There will be no closing exercises as the Trustees believed that the work of preparing songs, recitations, etc., interfered with the children's studie's. There is but one vacancy on the Board to be filled at the election Friday and it is thought that the present incumbent will be re-elected, as the Board has given com-plete satisfaction. The present staff of eachers will be retained. HOUSE MOVING.

NATIONAL POLICIES OUTLINED

Indications are beeching somewhat positive as to the policy with which the Democrats will go before the prople at the Presidential election next REV. DR COYLE'S TRIP year. The free silver issue, while not being permitted to predominate as it dfd in 1806 will be retained in such a way as to secure the co-operation of the States vitally interested in that question, but the slogan that above all others is to resound throughout the hand will be that of "anti-trusts."

expansion stand might be taken, but the leaders have long since decided that such a plan is dangerous. The pulse of the country is too plainly throbbing in favor of letting the American flag remain over the territory we have won, and as the great army of volunteers doubtless contains as many Democrats as Republicans it would be a very impolitic move ; antagonize so powerful an element.

Just why the Republicans should be held responsible for all the trusts and combinations of capital that have been formed throughout the country during the past couple of years is not easy to see. There has been no especial protection afforded to them since Me-Kinley, has been in office, and the only way to account for them is that they are the outcome of the prosperity that has attended the present administration. This theory is certainly feasible.

Just prior to the last Presidential election the capital of the country was tied up in banks and strong-boxs by the fear that free silver might be forced upon our financial system. When, however, it was found that the cause of sound money had triumphed, these vast hoards of wealth poured forth, seeking investment, and the 💍 shrowdness of the money-makers saw what advantages would acrue to them by combining their interests. The trusts have been the sequence of this ondition of prosperity and cannot be raced in any way to Republican doctrines or Republican measures of protection.

It will take another "campaign of O dugation" to offset the false issues O hat will be raised on the trust quesion, and the work cannot be comsend a notice to this office and sound money fight, if the facts are the complaint will be attended to properly placed before the people there will be but one outcome—the right of permitting wrong ideas to be sown in sell from which it will be hard to O town during the summer may have the approint them ere much of the mischlef has already been done.

SOMETHING FOR THE PEOPLE WHO RECEIVE MAIL.

Oakland's crying need is a new postoffice. Its cry for this is loud enough, one might suppose, to reach the O

Concy Island on the night of June v. and the mastern sports have made the Cornish freak a 2 to 1 favorite in the betting. To the Oakhand devotees of the boxing game these odds seem false. Jeffries has trained for neariy all his fights at the Reliance Club here, and has practically made Oakhand his home over since he began his cureer as a fighter. Billy Delancy, his trainer and manager, has ben a resident of this city for champlonship, and they have good reasons for thinking so.

Marvel that he is, Fitz is not invincible. He has been perilously near defeat more than once, and that, too, at the hands of fighters whom Jef fries can whip with case. When Fitz fought Peter Maher in New Or teans the latter, who was a green Irishman with scarcely any knowledge of boxing, caught Fitz a righ; on the ear in the first round that landed him helpless on the rones, and all that saved him from being counted out was the ringing of the gong. Fitz had to be carried to his corner by his seconds, who worked over him like demons and brought him around in the minute's rest between the rounds. After that he shood off and jabbed the Irishman till the latter quit in disgust. No judge of boxing believes that Maher would stand any chance with Jeffries, and it is certain that Fitz can never been knacked down or even dazed in any of his fights.

Jeffries has never been knacked down or even dazed in any of his fights.

This, however, is a mistake. Jeffries has always been held back by the cautious Delancy, and never allowed to mix things with bls opponent, as he wanted to.

A notable instance of this was his fight with Sharkey, a year ago.

cautions Delaney, and never anowed to mix things with his opinitarity, he wanted to.

A notable instance of this was his fight with Sharkey, a year ago.

Jeffries had the better of Sharkey in nearly every round, and had he been allowed to cut loose would have knocked the satlor out. De Witt Van Court, who was in Jeffries' corner, saw the chance and wanted Jeffries to go right at his man with both hands, but Delaney would not have it that way. "Jeff has got the decision, anyhow," he said, "and what's the use of taking a chance of a fluke knockout?"

In his coming battle, however, it is not likely that Jeffries will be hampered in any such manner. He will be sent out to do his best, and with bis great size, enormous strength, youth and stamina, he is the most formidable opponent that Fitzsimnous ever had.

STORY OF BAKER AND BREAD.

WAAT SAY YOU MEMBERS OF CITY COUNCIL! By RALPH HOYT.

Mr. John C. Wright of Berkeley thinks there is something radically ⊕ wrong in the taxation methods of Oakland. His business in Berkeley is € that of supplying people with bread manufactured at his "Golden Sheaf Bakery" in the University city, and for months past he has been and ♦ is now running a delivery wagon into the sacred precincts of Oakland and supplying numerous residents of that city with bread and other pro-⊕ ducts of his establishment. For committing this herious offense Mr. . Wright is compelled to pay a fine to the Oakland authorities of five dollars a month, while persons tiving in Berkeley who send milk into Oak-奪 land, and there sell it, are exempt from any such Hife. The man who @ & supplies Oakland with "the staff of life" is treated as if he were introducing raw dynamite or frosh smallpox into the community, and is reregarded as a public enemy. Hence it is that Mr. Wright would like to know why this is thus, or whence, wherefore, how, or by what authority, within what rule of equity, under what code of morality, or in accord-

GOOD WORK BY WOMAN'S EXCHANGE.

The work of the Woman's Exchange has been steadily increasing since they moved into their new quarters on Broadway, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, last September. The principal work is done in the food and fancy work departments. In the food department, the demand is always steady and yields good eturns to consigners. In the fancy work department, though there is always a moderate demand, still the demand does not outrun the supply, except during the holidays, when there is almost always a sure sale for the work of those wise ones who have toiled through the rest of the year on work that might find no sale then. Though the work is sufficiently remunerative to consigners, still the ten per cent discount does not support the institution, which adds to its means of support by the lunch room, where lunches are served from 11 A. WE LIVE IN GARDEN OF EDEN.

WHAT SAY YOU READERS OF THE BIBLE. By A. W. BISHOP.

Visiting on a leisure day the old, old Mission, San Jose, where, more than § a century ago the Padre Fathers reared the mission walls, tolled the chapel ◆ cen, and taught the ignorant natives to bear the cross of God, and ⊛ man, as well I ingratiated myself into the good favor of the Father in & charge, who courteously granted me perusal of the ancient parchment rec- & ⋄ ords of the Mission, dating back to 1767—the first settlement of Alameda ⋄ ⊕ county, and, in fact, of Northern California. To refresh the physical ◆ e man and jog our halting Spanish, the good Father brought from the old e cob-web'd cellar of the Missian a bottle of good red wine, for which the � 6 Mission has long been famous. Calling from the old tomes such informa- 6 tion as I desired for a paper to be read before the Historical Society of @ San Francisco, I retired to the shade of an ancient office-a centen- ⊕ arian in age, and more than eight feet in circumference-and there, sur- @ rounded by the ghosts of the past century, cowled monk and Indian \odot neophyte, with that towering landmark, Mission Peak, looking down upon 3 me, the sentinel of a thousand centuries; in this veritable Garden of Eden, \odot I entered upon the realm of thoughtdom.

in my random cogitations it occurred to me as a matter of some wonderment, and 1 propounded the question to the ancient olive sentinel, and & shouted the inquiry at the towering form of the antedhuvion granite $\boldsymbol{\vartheta}$ shouted the inquiry at the towering form of the antediuvian grantle pillars of Mission Park: "Why has no scribe been found; no enterprising newspaper correspondent; no one since the days of the great Hubberew law giver who has made anything bordering upon a successful attempt at writing up the Carden of Eden?" The only historical account of that wonderful paradished spot of earth comes from the Hebrew historian and law writer. Moses—and that comes from the Hebrew historian and law writer. Moses—and that comes down to us in a very short and suggestive form. This brief, historical romance can be found in the second and third chapters of Genesis, i quote the gist of the historical account for the benefit of the great milority who seldom, if ever, disturb the pages of their corefully preserved Morrocco-bound Hibles:

"And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there put man that the had formed out of the dust of the earth, etc. And out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the mids; of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and cyil. And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and it divided into four heads (streams); and there is bdeilium and onyx stone, etc."

- 1-1 -1----

Where this country, named "Eden," was located in which the garden was planted, is not definitely known. It was enstward in Eden. Eastward from where? Asia is considered the Eddical Greenwich from which bought do in this case must be reckoned. California then would be eastward; besides, California has the four rivers; and they compass the land where there is gide; and the gold is good; and there is bdellium and onyx, and other precious stones too numericus to mention—and who can say that California is not the Eden of which Moses wrote? And that some where around the bay of San Francisco—la all probability in Alameda county—perhaps the very section which comprised the old Mission San Jose, was, and is the locus in quo, where the primeval garden of Eden was planted. was planted.

clime. The discovery of remains of elephant, mammoth and mastodon species in Washington township along the banks of Alameda creek, demonstrate the fact that these tropical animals once rounded over the Alameda valley, and revelled in the invariant growth of its tropical trees and vegetation. This may have been long centuries previous to the lifting use of the Moure Disblacement of the tropic of the compact of the compact of the compact of the compact of the Moure Disblacement of the Disblacement of the Moure Disblacement of the Mour ing up of the Monte Diable and Contra Costa ranges; and even before the Sierra Nevada range was fully developed. Who knows? Who can refute the assertion if made?

As evidence that Alameda county was the favored spot in this California Edd n where the garden was planted is the fact that today "every tree that is fair to the sight and good for food," grows luxuriantly in this favored elime and productive soil, with an atmosphere as pure and life-givored elime and productive soil, wire at a imagnate a living soil. As to the "Tree of Life,", there are many and of many varilies; and as to the "Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil." the virtue of that tree has long since been superceded by education, and books have taken the place of the angle.

Leaving the theory of romance let us come down to the present age of facts of mortals who are still paying the penalty of disobedience of Mother Eve and Father Adamethat of "carning our bread by the swert of the face" and consider where on this mundane sphere man can get his bread with less nerspiration; and provide clothes where fig leaves full to cover his nakedness and protect the body from the elements.

CANADA WANT PACIFIC PORT

Dispute Far From Settlement.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. NEW YORK, May 31,-A special to the Herald from Washington says:

Though less confident than it has been of settlement of the Alaskan boundary question, the administration is still hope ful that the negotiations being conducted by Secretary Hay and the British government will yet furnish a solution of the controversy.

Sir Wilfred Laurier's statement that Canada has nover demanded Pyramid Harbor is confirmed. As a matter of fact, Great Britain or Canada has never asked formally for a port on the Pacific This was the conclusion drawn by the officials from reading between the lines of the English communication. An official conversant with the negotia ions says after considerable discussion in the High Joint Commission, the sug gestion was made that the boundary dis pute be referred to arbitration. In principle this was satisfactory to the United States, but this government desired to have it specifically determined what ter-ritory should be subjected to arbitration. Great Britain consulted Canada, and later in a communication indicated that Candesired to put into controversy ada desired to put into controversy a port on the Alaskan coast, probably Skagway, though none was named.

Secretary Hay officially replied that the linited States could not consent to adopt the British proposition. This decision was reached after careful consultation with the President, and with full understanding of the importance of such a port to the Great British Northwest Teritary and the injury such an outlet would ritory and the injury such an outlet would ritory and the injury such an outlet would do to the Pacific Coast.

To a great extent the assembling of the High Joint Commission and the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty depend upon the solution of the boundary question. Great Britain insists the United States has more to gain by the abrogation of the Nicarauguan canal convention and the settlement of the numerous questions pending with Canada, than she has, and that as an offset the govous questions penning with character, she has, and that as an offset the government should be willing to make concessions in the houndary controversy. Despite that fact, about six years ago, a committee of the Legislature investigated charges made against his management, and some hard stories were told under oath by a number of the Inmates of the way in which the Home was conducted. Inmates objected to his management because, being blind like themselves, Saunders depended upon "seeing" quarters of the organization are in the people for information on a number of things affecting the Home and the comfort of the immates. As a consequence, they claimed to be subjected to a system of espionage which was oppressive and sometimes prejudiced. They also asserted that the food was frequently poor, the meat at times unfit to cal and that, because of the carlessness of the dining-room attendants, in allowing the place to be occupied with files, the inmates frequently found files in their soup and vlands, causing them to abandon both meal and dining room.

The investigating committee, however, did not censure Saunders. That gentleman remained in authority until the complexion of the Board changed and Colonel Juck Hays was elected to succeed him. Now an ther change has taken place in the complexion of the Board and Saunders succeeds Hays.

Colonel Hays will take up his residence in this city. His retirement, it is expected, will be followed by that of a number of the working staff of the place.

At all events, several of the attaches have notified the Board of Directors of their desire to leave the place at the
